

rare relationships

Act Like Yourself

April 23, 2023
Jeremy M. Gwaltney

Key Thought: RARE Relationships are build when we act like our true selves in difficult circumstances. Our true self is shaped by following our Good Shepherd, Jesus.

What You Do When You Forget Who You Are

Underlying Principle of Identity: Your identity always comes form _____ to a group.

You build RARE relationships when you have a _____ character shaped by your identity in Christ. This means that no matter what emotions you face, those around you know that you will (eventually) _____ like your true self in Jesus.

What do you Act Like? (John 10:10-15)

Jesus' identity is tied to the _____ with His Father (v. 14-15)

The Thief gets his identity from _____ with Jesus (v.10)

The _____ – defined as “Jesus” sheep (v. 14)

The _____ – defined by the enemy (v. 12)

The _____ – lack a core identity (v. 12)

What are two obstacle to acting like our true identity?

_____ – Our emotional buttons that get pushed.

Simple fact: When I am _____ I am no longer acting like _____.

_____ – The identity we show to cover up our weaknesses.

Becoming the Real You

The _____ of who you are in Jesus (2 Corinthians 5:17, Galatians 5:22-23, Ephesians 4:21-22)

Your _____ changes when you put your faith in Jesus

The _____ you is filled with the Spirit and His “_____”

You have the power to “_____” the old self and “_____” the new self

Practical Steps:

Be _____ with the Holy Spirit (Ephesians 5:1-2, 18)

Surround yourself with _____ to “_____”

“Put off” _____ and _____ and “Put on” your new _____ in Christ

Putting Off Triggers, to Live in Christ

_____ that I am triggered. – “I am triggered right now.”

Admit that I am not acting like _____. – “This is not who I really am.”

Make _____ where necessary. – “I’m sorry for the thing I said/did”

Putting off Masks to Live in Christ

Remember _____ you are

Remember _____ (1 John 4:18)

Q&A with the Pastors

Tuesday May 2 | 6:30-8pm

Join us for a night of building your relationships and families. The Harvest pastors and their wives will be fielding relationship, marriage, and parenting questions.

Childcare is provided for kids ages 0-5th grade. To submit a question for the evening, simply email info@hccgoshen.org and put “RARE Relationships” in the subject line.

BELONG

101

Your first step to connecting with
Harvest Community Church

TODAY

after second service at 12:15
in the Fellowship Hall

101

Free lunch and childcare are provided.

Visit hccgoshen.org/build-track for details